

Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science

Spend the summer in Kingston honing your skills as an innovator, and get paid!

The Queen's Summer Innovation Institute, a joint initiative of The Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science and Queen's School of Business is offering:

16 paid summer internships for 3rd and 4th Year Commerce and Engineering students.

To Learn More...

Attend an Information Session

Date: Tuesday, February 7th at 5:30pm

Location: Walter Light Hall, Room 210

Date: Thursday February 9th at 5:30pm

Location: Goodes Hall, Room 406

The summer program runs from May 7th to August 24th. The program is comprised of a two-week experiential learning segment, or "boot camp", and a 3-month applied innovation competition.

Participants will be paid $7,000 over the course of the summer.