

SUSTech Fact-sheet for Student Exchange Program

(Fall Semester, 2023)

About SUSTech

Southern University of Science and Technology (SUSTech) is a research-oriented public university established in 2012 in Shenzhen, China's innovation center. It is widely regarded as a pioneer in moving China's higher education reform forward to match the country's every growing role in the international arena. The SUSTech campus sits on a scenic stretch of land with creeks winding through the lychee tree-lined hills which dot the landscape. The tranquil natural environment is complimented by the modern architecture of the university buildings.
