The Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science at Queen’s University requests applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching the following undergraduate course in the 2023-2024 session.

ELEC 390 – Principles of Design and Development W K3.5
January 1, 2024 – April 30, 2024

Description:

ELEC 390 – Principles of Design and Development W3.5

The goal of this course is to prepare students for definition, design, management, and development of engineering projects and products. Students will learn about problem definition and impact analysis from an economic standpoint as well as other perspectives. Different design principles, management techniques, and development methodologies will be described. Culture and communication in teams will be discussed, followed by important concepts in ethics and intellectual property. Specific software and tools that are available for facilitating design/development activity will be introduced and utilized throughout the term. Students will apply concepts and explore issues through projects and laboratory activity.

Requirements: PREREQUISITES: Successful completion of Fall term 3rd year studies in either the Electrical Engineering program, or the Computer Engineering program.

Offering Term: W

Anticipated course enrolment: 294

Course Syllabus can be found at: https://www.ece.queensu.ca/undergraduate/courses/elec-390.html

Qualifications:

Minimum of a M.A.Sc. Degree in Engineering or a related field, OR a B.A.Sc. Degree in Engineering with extensive practical experience in engineering communications. Registered as a Professional Engineer (or an Engineer in Training) in the Province of Ontario. Previous teaching experience at the University level will be preferred. Candidates should have excellent communication and presentation skills. Preference will be given to candidates who are registered as professional engineers in the province of Ontario.

Queen’s University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Academic staff at Queen’s University is governed by a collective agreement between QUFA, QUFA and Queen’s University.
The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact ECE Reception. Link: ecerecpt@queensu.ca

Prior to May 1, 2022, the University required all students, faculty, staff, and visitors (including contractors) to declare their COVID-19 vaccination status and provide proof that they were fully vaccinated or had an approved accommodation to engage in in-person University activities. These requirements were suspended effective May 1, 2022, but the University may reinstate them at any point.

To comply with Federal laws, the University is obliged to gather statistical information about how many applicants for each job vacancy are Canadian citizens/permanent residents of Canada. Applicants need not identify their country of origin or citizenship, however, all applications must include one of the following statements: I am a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada; OR, I am not a Canadian citizen/permanent resident of Canada. Applications that do not include this information will be deemed incomplete.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching experience, the names and contact details of two referees who may be contacted, and any relevant other materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration. Applications can be submitted to the ECE Appointments Committee at the address below, or by email to ecerecpt@queensu.ca

Applications should be received no later than July 31, 2023.
